Artistic Teapot

This series is inspired by the enchanted world of fairy tales where any everyday object can magically become something else, just like these teapots which are real small sculptures full of unique and precious details; collectible works of art that can be brought to the table at tea time.

Alice Teapot

This teapot is clearly inspired by Alice in Wonderland and repropose the fantastic madness of the story. You can find references to it in all the very precious details.

Fly Away with Me Teapot

This teapot plays with the characteristic of the "Rococò" style and the theme of CAPRICCIO, typical of the Italian and french 18th century art style.

Tea in the Wood Teapot

This teapot presents a dream in which a lady takes her tea with the fairies riding an elegant hare in the wood. The lady is the lid and the hare serves as teapot to amuse and amaze guests.

Cinderella Teapot

This very extraordinary teapot, rich in unique and precious details, immortalizes Cinderella's escape on her fairy pumpkin.

Prince Frog Teapot

This teapot is inspired by the famous fairy tale of the Princess and the Enchanted Frog and more precisely the moment in which she tries to escape her promise to have tea with him.
